COUNTY OF KINGS)

LYUDMILA BORUKHOVA, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am the President and a Director of the Debtor Oholei Yosef Yitchok Lubavitch and I have personal knowledge of the information contained herein, as well as authority to make these statements on behalf of the Debtor.

2. No committee has been organized prior to entry of the order for relief. I am the only member of the Debtor's management, and I am responsible for managing the entire operation.

3. The following information is responsive to Local Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 1007-4:

i. The Debtor is a small business debtor within the meaning of Bankruptcy

Code § 101(51D);

- ii. The Debtor is a New York incorporated non-profit community backed Yeshiva school for children with approximately 50 children enrolled for the 2018-2019 school year ranging from the ages of 18 months through children in Grade 7 located at 876-878 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, New York that operates school year round. The Debtor previously had enrollment of approximately 70 children prior to a culmination of certain issues that have arisen in the last year and a half and estimates losing 25 enrollments for the upcoming school year because of most recent events that were precipitated in March 2018, including the interior destruction of one of the two school buildings in which it operates. Many of the actions of a certain individual Yakov Bryski (“Bryski”), who has been a public figure in negative public child molestation allegations against him, are believed to have resulted in the problems encountered by the Debtor. Bryski was previously in charge of predecessor school on the premises under the name of Yeshiva Chanoch Lenaar, also which had been organized as a non-profit Yeshiva and is now the current purported landlord. Bryski no longer has community support for running a Yeshiva school for children. Additionally, Bryski obtained from New York City a deed restriction removal in 2015, and thereafter, he directed one of the adjacent buildings, a dormitory, sold to a developer. However, the Debtor who ran a new community backed Yeshiva on the premises, and entered into leases with Yeshiva Chanoch Lenaar under Bryski’s direction who represented he had the authority to lease the premises, was ultimately improperly evicted at the direction of Bryski, with interior demolition of one of the two buildings by a new proposed lessee of the premises, including the demolition of classrooms, cut off heating on all floors and then demolished the Kosher kitchen and ripped up the first floor tile in the other building in July 2017 while school was in session. In fear of getting evicted before the end of the 2018 school year and disrupting the school year for the children, the Debtor stipulated that Bryski, or Yeshiva Chanoch Lenaar, would wait until the end of the school year for eviction. However, the Debtor and community leaders are now doubting the validity of the stipulation for several reasons, including the represented authority by Bryski that he acted with board approval of Yeshiva Chanoch Lenaar. Authority for these and prior actions are now doubted, as the Debtor and many community leaders now suspect that no board existed for quite some time, contrary to Bryski's representations, and that he had no authority for many of the actions taken that negatively impacted the Debtor's school and the finances of the school ultimately leading to a suspected unauthorized attempt at eviction;

 - xi. See the Statement of Financial Affairs for location of books and records and all assets are held in accounts or on the premises which are within the United States.
 - xii. The Debtor is the defendant in an action by Yeshiva Chanoch Lenaar LT-092546-17 in Supreme Court Kings County for which the plaintiff advised the Debtor that the city marshal is scheduled to take legal possession on August 1, 2018. The Debtor had also filed its own motion to restore possession under 081907-17 in Supreme Court Kings County in which it had previously restored possession of the premises.
 - xiii. The directors of the Debtor include Lyudmila Borukhova, Anna Rozenblit and Mottel Shnaiderman.
4. The Debtor has no employees, but has contracts with school educators on a 1099 basis.
5. In the next 30 days, the Debtor anticipates revenue of $15,000 and approximately $15,000 expenses for educators, supplies and getting the building ready for the new session beginning August 18, 2018. The revenues are from monthly tuition payments and New York City HCD voucher deposits received in the middle of the month following actual educational services rendered for students who economically require public financial assistance for schooling. At the same time that Bryski is seeking eviction, he also has been in discussions with the Debtor for the purchase of the buildings where the religious community will provide funding for the purchase of the buildings and the additional development of a community center.

6. The Debtor is a non-profit corporation, so there are no corporations who own 10% or more of its outstanding shares of stock.
